YOUTH & ADULT DIALOGUE

As a service to the community, we have begun to facilitate creative-based youth & adult dialogues within the community in efforts to help change the dynamic between youth and the adults they interact with.

TYPES OF DIALOGUES:

- Student/teacher
- Teens/parent
- Youth/Police

GOALS & OBJECTIVES

01

Build community -> intentionally build a safe and supportive creativity community by developing the social connection that connects participants together and gives them the courage to be themselves

02

Break down barriers -> reveal the depth and clarity of students, and help adults gain new perspective on the real needs of the youth they are serving.

03

Create change -> To identify action steps to improve the relationship between students and faculty in their community.
